Community Foundation boosts grants in response to United Way cuts

The Community Foundation granted $300,000 this month to support the local nonprofit agencies impacted by a 4% cut in grantmaking by Foothills United Way. The additional grants were made possible with a significant gift by the founding group, a member of The Community Foundation's Entrepreneurs Foundation of Colorado (ECFO). More

The BRAVO Fund has been issued a challenge and now is a great time to give!

An anonymous donor has committed a $12,500 match to the BRAVO Fund. If the match is met, the fund will have a balance of $50,000 and $2,500 to make its first grants.

What is the BRAVO Fund? Building Resilience through Active Voices and Opportunities seeks to encourage interested individuals to pool their charitable dollars. BRAVO is an endowed fund of The Community Foundation making it a permanent resource for Latino communities in Boulder County. Learn more and donate today!

Empowering kids to make philanthropic decisions by Denver Business Journal

Teaching philanthropy to our 8-year-old twins was more challenging than my wife and I expected. Like most kids that age, they are very hands-on and they are very fast to change the topic when it is not their attention spans. We have had a conversation about homelessness in one bed and Denali in the next. We needed a better plan.

After much research, we discovered The Community Foundation. To our delight, it offered exactly what we wanted. More

Thank you Larry H. Miller Toyota Boulder!

Larry H. Miller Toyota Boulder recently donated $15,000 in support of ELPA2O (Engaged Latino Parents Advancing School Outcomes).

ELPA2O is a new grassroots movement creating a critical mass of well-informed and skilled Latino parents who will help more Latino children start kindergarten ready to learn. In this second year, the program has connected more than 700 Latino parents with the information, skills, and resources critical to ensure their children are prepared for school. More

TRENDS Report: Fact of the Month

The U.S. Census 2014 population estimates show, for the first time, that more than 50 percent of the nation’s children under the age of 5 are minorities (i.e., any group that’s not single race non-Latino while what the TRENDS report defines as Anglo). Boulder County and Colorado’s populations follow this trend in a growing diversity among pre-kindergarten aged children and babies, which tends to lead us to have a higher percentage of Anglos here. More

Community Partner Spotlight: Conscenice Bay Company

In 2002, CEO Brian Beleckis created a social enterprise to provide a sustainable source of income for the State of California and to create value for customers. In its early days, Beleckis and his team spent many hours sifting through measures of what constitutes a more sustainable and ethical approach to the way goods are produced and sold. More

The 2015-16 class of the Leadership Fellows Program already forging new connections

The 2015-16 class of the Leadership Fellows Program – a joint effort of The Community Foundation and the Boulder Chamber – is well underway, its 32 participants from across sectors engaged in better understanding Boulder County’s economic, social and cultural drivers. More

Boulder News Facebook

The Boulder News is a new, full-service daily newspaper serving Boulder, CO.

The Community Foundation Boulder County

Advancing a brighter future for Boulder County through philanthropy and collaboration.

1123 Spruce Street, Boulder, CO 80301
(303) 442-0436
www.commfound.org

Mile High Mamas Facebook

A group of mothers in the Denver Metro area who are interested in networking with each other and offering support and advice.

The Mandolin

A local Boulder venue with a dive bar feel and a great brunch.

Thank you Larry H. Miller Toyota Boulder!

Larry H. Miller Toyota Boulder recently donated $15,000 in support of ELPA2O (Engaged Latino Parents Advancing School Outcomes).

ELPA2O is a new grassroots movement creating a critical mass of well-informed and skilled Latino parents who will help more Latino children start kindergarten ready to learn. In this second year, the program has connected more than 700 Latino parents with the information, skills, and resources critical to ensure their children are prepared for school. More

TRENDS Report: Fact of the Month

The U.S. Census 2014 population estimates show, for the first time, that more than 50 percent of the nation’s children under the age of 5 are minorities (i.e., any group that’s not single race non-Latino while what the TRENDS report defines as Anglo). Boulder County and Colorado’s populations follow this trend in a growing diversity among pre-kindergarten aged children and babies, which tends to lead us to have a higher percentage of Anglos here. More

Community Partner Spotlight: Conscenice Bay Company

In 2002, CEO Brian Beleckis created a social enterprise to provide a sustainable source of income for the State of California and to create value for customers. In its early days, Beleckis and his team spent many hours sifting through measures of what constitutes a more sustainable and ethical approach to the way goods are produced and sold. More

The 2015-16 class of the Leadership Fellows Program already forging new connections

The 2015-16 class of the Leadership Fellows Program – a joint effort of The Community Foundation and the Boulder Chamber – is well underway, its 32 participants from across sectors engaged in better understanding Boulder County’s economic, social and cultural drivers. More

Make a gift to The Community Foundation today!

1123 Spruce Street, Boulder, CO 80301
(303) 442-0436
www.commfound.org