How Are We A Community Catalyst?

The Community Foundation is a community catalyst that helps people give back to their community. A catalyst is defined as a small change that makes a huge difference. We do this by making a difference with the money you give back to your community. We can’t do it without you.

Margaret Johns On Leaving A Legacy

We were sorry to hear that Margaret Johns recently passed away. Margaret Johns was a long-time resident and volunteer in and around Boulder County. Margaret and her husband, Frank, raised their children here and they loved the area.

Margaret Johns enjoyed leading a community choir through their annual Christmas music program at the Boulder Theater. Margaret also worked to support other community efforts such as the Boulder Community Foundation.

If you wish to honor Margaret Johns, we encourage you to consider the Boulder Community Foundation in your estate planning. The Fund for Boulder County is a permanent fund that continues to grow and multiply funds to support Boulder County organizations and projects.

November Note from Jasie Heath

Dear Friends,

In this year of campaign, vote yes on Referendum C. Yes on C supports our community and our future. Yes on C means more resources for teacher salaries, hiring more support staff and increasing literacy rates. It means more resources for health care and mental health services.

Yes on C means a safer community. It means more resources for law enforcement and the courts. And, yes on C means more resources for senior and youth services.

Yes on C supports a variety of community priorities. It is a ballot initiative that supports our communities and keeps them healthy and safe.

In Boulder County we enjoy a great quality of life. It’s a great place to raise a family, work, and enjoy the outdoors. Yes on C means more resources for our communities.

Thank you for your consideration.

Jasie Heath
