

COMMUNITY FOUNDATION BOULDER COUNTY

INSPIRING IDEAS. IGNITING ACTION.™

January 2019 Round Up

IN THIS ISSUE

On Our Blog

Message From Jeff Hirota, CEO

News & Perspectives From The Field

On Our Blog: Leaders, Givers, and News

Donors & Professional Advisors:

- Donor-Advised Fund Spotlight: Aaron's Fund
- Open Door Fund: Heather Crate
- Donor-Advised Fund Spotlight: Jim and Edie Hooton

Grants, Programs & Perspectives:

- Request for Proposals from 15 Forever Fund due March 25
- Community Thought Leader: Cryptocurrency: How can charities get in on the action?
- Leadership Fellow Spotlight: Pam Malzbender
- Leadership Fellows Spotlight: Lisa White

Radio Show:

Your Community Foundation hosts "A Public Affair" on KGNU every fourth Monday of the month at 8:35 a.m. Join us or catch up on our radio show page or via podcast.

- Philanthropy in the Entrepreneurial Sector
- Mentorship in Boulder County

Staff News:

This month we said goodbye and good luck to Maegan Vallejo, Individual Giving Coordinator. She moved to an exciting new position with Front Range Community College. If Maegan used to be your contact, please don't hesitate to be in touch with Vice President of Philanthropic Services, Lynda Ricketson. 303.442.0436x103

Early in February we'll say goodbye to Benjamin Martinez, Grants Administrator. He has accepted an Associate Program Officer position with The Denver Foundation. His last day will be February 8. After that, please direct any inquiries to Elvira Ramos, Vice President of Programs and Inclusive Leadership. 303.442.0436 x111

Save-the-Date:

The Gayla on Saturday, April 20, 2019

Your Community Foundation's Open Door Fund is proud to announce that we're partnering with Out Boulder County this year to host "The Gayla" - the evolution of the annual Open Door Fund Dinner. This exciting event will benefit LGBTQ programs of Out Boulder County, in addition to a host of grantees of the Open Door Fund. Please mark your calendars and learn more at outboulder.org/gayla.

Donating to your Community Foundation makes a difference you can see. Please donate today by clicking here!

Message From Jeff Hirota, CEO Beyond Sorrow

Dear Friends,

In many ways, 2018 has been a painful year. Community Foundation Boulder County strives to be nonpartisan, but it is not neutral about the issues. As we zoom in from that iconic picture of Planet Earth to Boulder County, the global, international, national, and local issues connect us in one interdependent and profoundly personal reality.

Although 2018 seemed a year unlike any other in recent memory, it sounded strong echoes of 2017. So, with regrets for many unstated headlines, here are some of the stories of another year in our life together.

Full Blog

News & Perspectives From The Field

Cryptocurrency And The Community Foundation Field \(January 29, Philanthropy News Digest\)

11 Trends In Philanthropy For 2019: Anticipate And Embrace What's Next \(Johnson Center\)

Report: Charitable donations poised to grow in 2019, 2020 \(January 23, The NonProfit Times\)

Boulder Chamber Economic Forecast: Local growth will slow, but not stall in 2019 (January 17, Daily Camera)

Money From Donor-Advised Funds Is at Work Improving Communities (January 14, Chronicle of Philanthropy)

On Philanthropy predictions for 2019: Economic and political volatility will impact giving world (January 13, Denver Post)

Building Resilience: Helping Communities Bounce Back After a Crisis Hits (January 12, Inside Philanthropy)

Survey reveals public confidence in philanthropy across party lines (January 9, Philanthropy Daily)

9 Ways To Gift Your Assets To Charity (January 9, Forbes)

Disruption Ahead: What to Know About Donor-Advised Funds in 2019 (January 7, Chronicle of Philanthropy)

Community Foundation Boulder County
303.442.0436
commfound.org