November 18: Workshop for Nonprofit Leaders

Message from Tatiana Hernandez, CEO

Dear Friends,
Our hearts go out to everyone affected by October's wildfires, whether in Boulder County or in our neighboring counties. These fires ignited during an already fraught year, one where many have been stretched to the brink – economically, emotionally, and socially. Our most basic need – that of safety – is being tested. If you need help, please seek it, as there are many in our community who will help hold you up. You are not alone.

Your Community Foundation continues to work with Boulder County and the many nonprofit organizations that responded to the Cal-Wood and Lefthand Canyon fires. We are also working with community foundations and United Ways in nearby communities to coordinate a broader response. Once again, in a moment of crisis, this community rallied. Volunteers and donors leapt into action. Many of you are hosting evacuated friends, sheltering animals, gathering supplies, feeding our firefighters, or donating money – THANK YOU.
