at-a-glance

ESTABLISHED: 1991   |   PRESIDENT: Jeff Hirota

OUR PURPOSE: For community-minded people who want to make a difference, the Community Foundation is a trusted community catalyst that ignites action by making informed decisions, being responsive, and believing that we accomplish more together than we do alone.

GRANTMAKING: Since its founding, the Community Foundation has granted $75M to nonprofits representing a broad range of funding areas – including health and human services, basic needs, children and youth, education, civic engagement, arts and culture, and animals and the environment.

COMMUNITY RESOURCE: We’re a trusted resource for donors and professional advisors, providing philanthropic expertise and services to inform decisions about meaningful, impactful giving.

INVESTING IN COMMUNITY: The Community Foundation is one of approximately 1,700 community foundations worldwide. Here in Boulder County, we’re a community catalyst for change – we connect community-minded people who want to give, and the people and causes who need their support.
